Recent News

St. James Icon

The new icon of St. James, commissioned by Fr. Jaroslaw (Yarek) Dziuba SDS, was blessed by Bishop Frederick Henry at St. James Roman Catholic Church in Calgary AB on July 25, 2010.

The icon is 36" x 52" and is written on Baltic Birch covered with linen and gesso, with archival acrylic paint and covered in 24K Russian Gold.

The icon remains true to traditional symbols and with St. James holding the Word of God in his left hand while blessing with his right.

St. Cecilia Icon

The new icon of St. Cecilia was commissioned by the University of Notre Dame in Indiana, in memoriam of their Music Director, Gail Walton.

The icon is 19" x 24", written on Baltic birch covered in linen and gesso, in archival acrylic and covered with 24K Russian Gold.

The icon remains traditional but portrays St. Cecilia in more traditional garb for her era and as the noble woman that she was; not in the more modern images of her. There is a commentary on the icon at the website

Perpetual Help Icon

The icon of the Perpetual Help icon was commissioned as a gift.

The icon is 11" x 14", Baltic birch covered with linen and gesso; and written with archival acrylic and 24K Gold.
